

ENDING CLAUSE CAUSES BOARD TO REFUSE GIFT

The fourth time the deed to Kalahele Gardens was presented to the board and for the third time refused. The city accepted it once, but the grounds have been added to the city to develop. The deed was accepted for $500 as mentioned in the deed. The city also refused to accept the deed which contained any provision for the city to develop the grounds. DESTROYS 1000 SPOILED FOOD TINS IN WEEK

Insanaphatically, declaring that the guavas were for pake, jelly, and we should not care. We found him with the fact that pake should be just as carefully cared for as any other kind. The inspector says that one of the reasons he found to a considerable extent the reasoning that if the O.R. is willing to eat the food the pake should not bother about it. In the majority of cases he was met with cheerful willingness to cooperate in the clean-up campaign.

Why kitchens which furnish food for school children and for the bums who live in many of the street carns are to be given vigorous clean-up and renovated wherever it is possible. Butcher shops where there are no fans running to drive off the odor are also to be the subject of close inspection.

THERE BE LIGHT REQUESTED OF BOARD

Another amusing letter requesting the board to install a light at the corner of Pihai street and Matlock avenue. J. B. Rose was read last night and referred to the committee. The letter said: "I reside at 1317 Pihai street and except when the light is shining this is a very dark and dangerous corner. The Good Book says 'Let there be light,' and I therefore request that you place a light at this corner."

KALEMA DEMURS TO ATTEMPTED MURDER CHARGE

Declares Nothing in Indictment Constituting Violation of Laws of Territory

Through his attorney, R. W. Brockman, Kalema, the Hawaiian striker indicted on a charge of attempted murder, has filed in circuit court a demurrer to the indictment. Argument on the demurrer will be heard at 9 o'clock next Saturday morning before Circuit Judge Ashford.

The indictment charges that Kalema rolled an empty galvanized iron gasoline drum in front of an O. R. & L. locomotive, derailing it. The locomotive was drawing a string of cars containing strike-breakers.

It is alleged in the demurrer that the facts in the indictment do not constitute any crime against the laws of the territory, and that it contains no charge against Kalema that he made any assault on any persons with intent to kill or murder them.

Further allegations are that in the indictment it does not appear in what manner the derailing, wrecking and destruction of the locomotive and railroad cars would result in the death of the persons whose names are mentioned in the indictment, and that it does not appear in the indictment that any person or persons were in the locomotive or cars at the time of the derailing.

Fields are being abandoned. "We are able to produce ample green vegetables, etc., but it would be fortunate could we produce six six preservable products that could be for a time used as staples."

"I am sure it would be greatly to the credit of the College of Hawaii could it suggest means of existence during a limited blockade."

Regent Farrington said this morning that while the discussion yesterday was general, it has been informally decided that the college will first undertake to find out what has been done by various authorities, civilian and military, in the way of a "census" of food resources and crop resources for human consumption. This will probably suggest a much wider field of investigation.

"The college in this work is carrying out its aim to be of service to the community and the territory," he said. "We are unable to tell how long the work will take or what scope it will cover, but it will be started at once."

NEED MORE MONEY FOR COMPLETION MANOA PROJECT

Because there is an underestimate of $6599 of the work in the Manoa improvement district the board of supervisors Friday night was asked to pass a resolution appropriating that amount. It was voted to take the matter up at the next meeting.

Arnold said the discrepancy was caused by a mistake of the city engineer, but he believed that if it had not been made the work would never have started, as, with the $6500 estimate added to the estimate, the cost per front foot would have been higher than the amount voted by the people.

$2000 IS FORWARDED FOR ARMENIAN RELIEF

DINERS INQUIRE WHAT BECOMES OF AGED CHEMISTS

In the midst of the jollification at the annual banquet of the sugar chemists and boiler at Helmie's Tavern last night, a serious turn was given when the question was raised as to what became of the chemists when they reached the age of 35. Fifty men were present and none could answer and it was referred to a committee to report at the next meeting. It seems that all the chemists are young men, while those in the mechanical department are gray headed.

The banquet was the end of a very successful convention, and the men, forgetting test tubes and compounds and sugar crystals, enjoyed themselves immensely. C. C. James was toastmaster and saw to it that there was not a slow moment. Appropriate speeches were made and the fun ran up to the wee hours.

CONCERT RECEIPTS GO TO HELP WAR ORPHANS

Many Honoluluans are planning something different in the way of a Saturday evening entertainment, something good and also philanthropic. Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls' benefit concert at the Royal Hawaiian Opera House tonight in aid of the European war orphans.

Mrs. Ingalls, whose mastery of the violin is well known here, will be assisted by Miss Clemence Gifford, soprano, and Frank Moss, pianist.

Anyone who likes music or loves babies has an opportunity to enjoy the one and help the other tonight, the concert promoters say, for the selections which have been arranged are classed as excellent, and the babies to be helped by the proceeds are in need of any assistance which may be sent from the territory.

Several of Honolulu's charming young women have been in charge of ticket sales for a number of days and will take their positions tonight as ushers to see that their patrons are seated properly.

Honolulu patrons, interested in the success of the concert, who have been named as patronesses are E. A. R. Ross, Mrs. Henry B. Restarick, Mrs. William L. Hopper, Mrs. Montague Cooke, Mrs. E. L. S. Gordon, Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Mrs. Rudolph Buchly, Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. Theodore Richards, Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mrs. A. Lewis, Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mrs. A. L. Castle and Mrs. Dorems Scudder.

POLICE CONTINUE WORK FOR MORAL CLEANUP

The police are following up their campaign against alleged disorderly houses and women in the up-town districts of Honolulu. This morning in police court Margaret Eli was sentenced to 15 days in jail. She was arrested in the Tai Loy lodging house at the corner of Beretania and King streets, and a warrant was issued this morning for the proprietor, charging conducting a disorderly house.

Joseph Royce, professor of history of philosophy at Harvard University, is dead.
